

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20460

OFFICE OF
PREVENTION, PESTICIDES AND
TOXIC SUBSTANCES

Job Fair Announcement
April 3-4, 2008

The U. S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Prevention, Pesticides and Toxic Substances (OPPTS) will host a job fair on April 3 (9:00am - 4:00pm) and April 4 (9:00am - 12 noon). The job fair will be held at EPA's offices in the Potomac Yard South Building, 1st Floor Conference Center, 2777 Crystal Drive, Arlington, Virginia.

OPPTS is seeking entry level candidates (GS-05/07/09 grade level) for the following positions: Biologists, Chemists, Ecologists, Environmental Scientists and Engineers, Toxicologists, Economists, Industrial Hygienists, and Environmental Protection Specialists. In order to apply for these positions, candidates must have a college degree (or will be receiving a college degree within the near future), and/or relevant experience.

There are two major program offices within OPPTS seeking candidates at this job fair:

The Office of Pesticide Programs (OPP) --

OPP regulates the use of all pesticides in the United States, ensuring that Americans are not exposed to unsafe levels of pesticides in food, protecting from unreasonable risk and educating those who apply or are exposed to pesticides occupationally or through use of products, and protecting the environment and special ecosystems from potential risks posed by pesticides. OPP is located in Arlington, Virginia, at the Potomac Yard South Building at 2777 Crystal Drive.

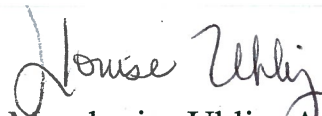

The Office of Pollution Prevention and Toxics (OPPT) --

OPPT promotes the use of safer chemicals, processes, and technologies; promotes life-cycle management of environmental problems such as asbestos; and, advances pollution prevention through voluntary action by industry. OPPT is located in Washington, D.C., at the EPA East building on 12th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W.

We would appreciate if you would disseminate this information to your students and job placement/career counseling departments. The flyer also provides links to other sources of information about our programs and the job fair.
